

INVESTIGATING SEXUAL ASSAULT OF ELDER VICTIMS webinar available now!

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Improving sexual assault responses for elder victims necessitates a collaborative approach between agencies. The model presented involves collaboration between police departments, State Attorney's Offices, Adult Protective Services, And Victim Advocates. Implementation ideas include

- Integration of Adult Protective Services and Victim Advocates into investigations,
- Coordinated victim interviews to minimize effort duplication and victim re-traumatization, and
- Investigator training on sexual assault of elder victims and trauma-informed care.

Collaboration between agencies responding to sexual assaults of elder victims is critical for improving and expediting investigations.

CLICK HERE TO VIEW WEBINAR

OTHER RESOURCES

Webinar Series

Improving the Response to Sexual Assault within Special Populations

Online Glossary

Multidisciplinary Sexual Violence Glossary

Sexual Assault Reform

Sexual Reform Resources

PRESENTERS: LT. JORDAN SATINSKY, MARIO WAWRZUSIN, AND DEBBIE FEINSTEIN

Lt. Jordan Satinsky is currently the Deputy Director of the Special Victims Investigations Division in the Montgomery County Police Department. Mario Wawrzusin has worked with the Montgomery County Adult Protective Services for 30 years. Debbie Feinstein is the Chief Prosecutor of the Special Victims Division at the Montgomery County State's Attorney's Office.

ATTENDEE INTERACTION FROM KEY AUDIENCE SEGMENTS

"We are attempting to replicate this awesome collaborative model in my jurisdiction."

— Legal Attendee

"Medical Examiner offices with Elder Fatality Review teams would benefit from learning more about this approach."

— Forensic Scientist Attendee

"I believe every jurisdiction needs this type of multidisciplinary approach."

— Law Enforcement Attendee

To access the Improving Sexual Assault Response within Special Populations Webinar Series, visit <https://forensiccoe.org/webinar/sexual-assault-response-special-populations-webinar-series/>.